ADRA

Profile and Job Description
Project Manager (Project LESS IV)

General Philosophy

Identity Statement: ADRA Sri Lanka (ADRA SL) is a humanitarian organization working within an internal network of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church that demonstrates God's love and compassion.

Mission: ADRA SL works with people in poverty and distress to create just and positive change through empowering partnerships and responsible action, encouraging harmonious co-existence.

ADRA SL has been working in Sri Lanka since 1983 and was registered on June 20th 2002 as a Local Non-Governmental Organization (NGO). Through its work ADRA SL promotes the values of humility, understanding, assistance, teamwork, collaboration, transparency and accountability. ADRA SL aims to build a positive working environment through value-based management that incentivizes hard work, discipline and reliability.

General Job Criteria

The project named Addressing the Immediate and Medium-Term Needs of the Rural and Estate Communities in Creating Environmental and Nutritional Development (AIM-RECCEND) project primarily focuses on addressing the urgent needs of the communities that have arisen due to the COVID-19 outbreak and the resulting economic crisis in the country. The primary outcomes address in increasing the institutional capacity to address epidemics, outbreaks, or pandemics and create resilient communities at large to face uncertainties. This project will be implemented in Nuwara Eliya, Matale and Monaragala Districts in 3 DS divisions: Ambagamuwa, Wilgamuwa and Wellawaya.

The position requires the appropriate educational qualifications and solid experience working in diverse rural communities and a positive and pleasant attitude. Strong coordination with internal and external stakeholders will be a requirement and a competency in managing these relationships will be deemed as vital. Working with the ADRA SL head office on donor relations, standard reporting and effective project management are central to this role. Respect for women, children, differently abled and all who the project encounters is a standard requirement of ADRA SL.
